

90TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

H. R. 7107

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

MARCH 13, 1967

Mr. REUSS introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on Armed Services

A BILL

To amend the National Security Act of 1947 and the Records Disposal Act of July 7, 1943, to provide for the improved direction and supervision by the President and by the Congress of the foreign intelligence activities and special operations of the United States.

1       Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2       tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3               IMPROVEMENT OF PRESIDENTIAL DIRECTION

4       SECTION 1. (a) Subsection (d) of section 102 of the 5       National Security Act of 1947 (50 U.S.C. 401) is amended 6       to read as follows:

7               “(d) For the purpose of coordinating the intelli-
8       gence activities of the several Government departments

I

1       and agencies in the interest of national security, it shall 2       be the duty of the Agency, under the direction of the 3       President—

4               “(1) to advise the President in matters con-
5       cerning such intelligence activities of the Govern-6       ment departments and agencies as relate to national 7       security;

8               “(2) to make recommendations to the Presi-9       dent for the coordination of such intelligence activi-10      ties of the departments and agencies of the 11      Government as relate to the national security;

12              “(3) to correlate and evaluate intelligence re-13      lating to the national security, and provide for the 14      appropriate dissemination of such intelligence with-15      in the Government using where appropriate existing 16      agencies and facilities: Provided, That the Agency
17      shall have no police, subpena, law-enforcement 18      powers, or internal-security functions: Provided 19      further, That the departments and other agencies of 20      the Government shall continue to collect, evaluate,
21      correlate, and disseminate departmental intelli-
22      gence: And provided further, That the Director of 23      Central Intelligence shall be responsible for protect-24      ing intelligence sources and methods from unauthor-
25      ized disclosure;

1           “(4) to perform for the benefit of the existing
2 intelligence agencies, such additional intelligence
3 activities as the President determines can be more
4 efficiently accomplished centrally and directs in 5 writing;

6           “(5) to perform such special operations affect-
7 ing the national security and to expend such funds
8 thereon as the President may from time to time
9 direct in writing.”

10       (b) Section 102 is further amended by redesignating
11 subsections (c) and (f) as subsections (f) and (g), respec-
12 tively, and by inserting after subsection (d) the following
13 subsection:

14           “(e) (1) Within sixty days of the enactment of this 15 amendment, the Director of Central Intelligence, and the 16 heads of other executive departments and agencies hav-
17 ing responsibilities for special operations shall report in 18 writing to the President on each special operation in 19 which the department or agency is then engaged. Each 20 report shall include a comprehensive description of the 21 special operation, its history, its objectives, the number
22 of persons engaged in the operation, the total annual ex-
23 penditures planned for the operation, and the total ex-
24 penditures made to date. The President shall review
25 each report and shall issue a written directive stating

1       whether the special operation shall be continued or ter-
2       minated, and, if continued, at what level of effort and 3       expenditure it shall be continued.

4       “(2) Thereafter, at least once a year from the date
5       of the Presidential directive establishing the operation
6       (or, in the case of an operation underway on the date of 7       enactment, annually from the date of the Presidential 8       directive issued in accordance with paragraph (1)
9       hereof), the head of the department or agency engaged 10      in the special operation shall report in writing to the 11      President on the current status of the operation. This 12      annual report shall include a comprehensive description
13      of the special operation, its history, its objectives, the 14      number of persons engaged in the operation, the total
15      annual expenditures planned for the operation, and the 16      total expenditures made to date.”

17   IMPROVEMENT OF CONGRESSIONAL SUPERVISION BY ES-18   TABLISHMENT OF A JOINT COMMITTEE ON INTELLI-
19   GENCE

20   SEC. 2. Section 102 is amended by inserting after 21   subsection (g) the following new subsection:

22       “(h) (1) There is hereby established a Joint Com-
23      mittee on Intelligence to be composed of seven Members
24      of the Senate to be appointed by the President of the 25      Senate, and seven Members of the House of Representa-

1 tives to be appointed by the Speaker of the House of 2 Representatives. In each instance not more than four
3 Members shall be members of the same political party.

4 “(2) The entire joint committee shall be reap-
5 pointed on January 3, 1972, and every four years there-
6 after. No Member shall serve more than four successive
7 years as a member of the joint committee, except that a
8 Member originally appointed to fill a vacancy may serve
9 the incompleated term and four years thereafter.

10 “(3) The joint committee shall make continuing 11 studies of the foreign intelligence activities and special
12 operations of the United States, and problems relating 13 thereto, including problems of the gathering of intel-
14 ligence affecting the national security and of its coordi-
15 nation and utilization by the various departments, agen-
16 cies, and instrumentalities of the Government, and the 17 advisability and problems of carrying out special opera-
18 tions. The Central Intelligence Agency and other de-
19 partments and agencies engaged in foreign intelligence
20 activities and special operations shall keep the joint 21 committee fully and currently informed with respect to 22 their activities. All bills, resolutions, and other matters
23 in the Senate or the House of Representatives relating 24 primarily to the Central Intelligence Agency and to

H.R. 7107—2

1 activities of other departments and agencies engaged 2 in foreign intelligence activities shall be referred to the 3 joint committee (including lists and schedules of records
4 lacking preservation value submitted to Congress by
5 the Administrator of General Services pursuant to sec-
6 tion 4 of the Act of July 7, 1943 (44 U.S.C. 369) ).

7 The members of the joint committee who are Members
8 of the Senate shall from time to time report to the 9 Senate, and the members of the joint committee who 10 are Members of the House of Representatives shall from 11 time to time report to the House, their recommenda-
12 tions, by bill or otherwise, with respect to matters
13 within the jurisdiction of their respective Houses which 14 are (1) referred to the joint committee or (2) other-
15 wise within the jurisdiction of the joint committee.

16 “(4) Vacancies in the membership of the joint com-
17 mittee shall not affect the power of the remaining mem-
18 bers to execute the functions of the joint committee, and 19 shall be filled in the same manner as in the case of the 20 original selection. The joint committee shall select a
21 chairman and vice chairman from among its members.

22 “(5) The joint committee, or any duly authorized
23 subcommittee thereof, is authorized to hold such hear-
24 ings, to sit and act at such places and times, to require,
25 by subpoena or otherwise, the attendance of such wit-

1 expenses and production of such books, papers, and docu-
2 ments, to administer such oaths, to take such testimony,
3 to procure such printing and binding, and to make such 4 expenditures as it deems advisable.

5 “(6) The joint committee is empowered to appoint
6 such experts, consultants, technicians, and clerical and 7 stenographic assistants as it deems necessary and advisa-
8 ble. The committee is authorized to utilize the services,
9 information, facilities, and personnel of the departments
10 and establishments of the Government on a reimbursable
11 basis with the prior consent of the heads of the depart-
12 ments or agencies concerned.

13 “(7) The expenses of the joint committee, which 14 shall not exceed $250,000 per year, shall be paid from 15 the contingent fund of the House of Representatives
16 upon vouchers signed by the chairman.”

17 DEFINITIONS

18 SEC. 3. Section 102 is further amended by inserting
19 after the new subsection (h) the following new subsection:

20 “(i) As used in this section:

21 “(1) ‘Intelligence’ means knowledge which is 22 the product resulting from the collection, evaluation,
23 analysis, integration, and interpretation of all avail-
24 able information which concerns one or more aspects
25 of foreign nations of areas of operations and which

1 is immediately or potentially significant to policy-
2 making or planning.

3 “(2) ‘Intelligence activities’ means those activ-
4 ities undertaken for the sole purpose of producing in-
5 telligence, and does not mean covert operations
6 which, in whole or in part, are undertaken to carry
7 out the foreign policy of the United States.

8 “(3) ‘Special operations’ means those covert
9 operations undertaken by the Central Intelligence
10 Agency or other departments or agencies which, in 11 whole or in part, are undertaken to carry out the 12 foreign policy of the United States.”

13 PRESERVATION OF INTELLIGENCE RECORDS

14 SEC. 4. (a) Section 5 of the Act of July 7, 1943 (44
15 U.S.C. 370) is amended by adding an additional sentence
16 at the end thereof as follows:

17 “Except that all lists or schedules of records of the 18 Central Intelligence Agency, or of the activities of any 19 other departments or agencies engaged in foreign intel-
20 ligence activities and special operations, shall be referred 21 to the Joint Committee on Intelligence, and the joint 22 committee shall examine such lists or schedules and sub-
23 mit to the Senate and House of Representatives, respec-
24 tively, a report of such examination and its recom-

1       (b) Section 6 of the Act of July 7, 1943 (44 U.S.C.
2 371) is amended by inserting, after the words "joint com-
3 mittee" and before the word "reports", the phrase, "to which 4 the lists or schedules were referred".

5       (c) Section 7 of the Act of July 7, 1943 (44 U.S.C.
6 372) is amended by inserting, after the words "joint com-
7 mittee" and before the word "fails", the phrase, "to which 8 the lists or schedules were referred".

JANUARY 10, 1967

Mr. COHELAN introduced the following joint resolution; which was referred to the Committee on Rules

JOINT RESOLUTION

To establish a Joint Committee on Foreign Information and Intelligence.

1 That (a) there is hereby established a joint congressional
2 committee to be known as the Joint Committee on Foreign
3 Information and Intelligence (referred to in this joint reso-4 lution as the "joint committee"), to be composed of seven 5 Members of the Senate appointed by the President of the 6 Senate, and seven Members of the House of Representatives
7 appointed by the Speaker of the House of Representatives.
8 In each instance not more than four Members shall be ap-
9 pointed from the same political party.

10 (b) Vacancies in the membership of the joint commit-11 tee shall not affect the power of the remaining members to

I—O

1 execute the functions of the joint committee, and shall be
2 filled in the same manner as in the case of the original
3 selection.

4 (c) The joint committee shall select a chairman and a
5 vice chairman from among its members at the beginning of 6 each Congress. The vice chairman shall act in the place and 7 stead of the chairman in the absence of the chairman. The 8 chairmanship shall alternate between the Senate and the 9 House of Representatives with each Congress, and the chair-
10 man shall be selected by the members of the joint committee 11 from the House entitled to the chairmanship. The vice 12 chairman shall be selected in the same manner as the chair-13 man, except that the vice chairman shall be selected by the 14 members of the joint committee from the House not entitled 15 to the chairmanship.

16 (d) The joint committee may appoint and fix the com-
17 pensation of such experts, consultants, technicians, and cleri-
18 cal and stenographic assistants as it deems necessary and 19 advisable.

20 (e) The joint committee is authorized to utilize the 21 services, information, facilities, and personnel of the execu-
22 tive departments and establishments of the United States.

23 (f) The joint committee is authorized to classify infor-
24 mation originating within the joint committee in accordance 25 with standards used generally by the executive branch of the

1 Federal Government for classifying restricted data or defense
2 information.

3 (g) The joint committee shall keep a complete record
4 of all committee actions, including a record of the votes on 5 any question on which a record vote is demanded. All com-6 mittee records, data, charts, and files shall be the property of 7 the joint committee and shall be kept in the offices of the 8 joint committee, or such other places as the joint committee 9 may direct, under such security safeguards as the joint com-10 mittee shall determine to be in the interest of national 11 security.

12 (h) The joint committee may make such rules respect-13 ing its organization and procedures as it deems advisable, but 14 no measure or recommendation shall be reported from the 15 joint committee unless a majority of the members thereof
16 assent.

17 SEC. 2. (a) The joint committee shall make continuing
18 studies of—

19 (1) the activities of each information and intel-
20 ligence agency of the United States,

21 (2) the problems relating to the foreign informa-
22 tion and intelligence program, and

23 (3) the problems relating to the gathering of in-24 formation and intelligence affecting the national se-25 curity, and its coordination and utilization by the var-

1       ious departments, agencies, and instrumentalities of the 2       United States.

3       (b) Each information and intelligence agency of the 4       United States shall keep the joint committee fully and cur-5       rently informed with respect to its activities.

6       (c) As used in this joint resolution, the term "informa-
7       tion and intelligence agency of the United States" means 8       the Central Intelligence Agency, and any unit within any 9       of the executive departments or agencies of the United 10      States conducting foreign information or intelligence 11      activities.

12      SEC. 3. All bills, resolutions, and other matters in the 13      Senate and House of Representatives relating primarily to 14      any information and intelligence agency of the United States 15      or its activities shall be referred to the joint committee.
16      The members of the joint committee who are Members of 17      the Senate shall, from time to time, report to the Senate, 18      and the members of the joint committee who are Members 19      of the House of Representatives shall, from time to time, 20      report to the House, by bill or otherwise, their recommenda-21      tions with respect to matters within the jurisdiction of their 22      respective Houses which are—

23               (1) referred to the joint committee, or

24               (2) otherwise within the jurisdiction of the joint 25      committee.

1       (b) In carrying out its duties under this joint resolu-
2       tion, the joint committee, or any duly authorized subcom-
3       mittee thereof, is authorized to hold such hearings, to sit 4       and act at such times and places, to require, by subpoena or 5       otherwise, the attendance of such witnesses and the produc-
6       tion of such books, papers, and documents, to administer
7       such oaths, to take such testimony, to procure such printing
8       and binding, and to make such expenditures, as it deems
9       advisable. Subpenas may be issued over the signature of 10      the chairman of the joint committee, or by any member
11      designated by him, or by the joint committee, and may be 12      served by any person designated by such chairman or 13      member.

14      SEC. 4. The expenses of the joint committee shall be 15      paid from the contingent fund of the House from funds
16      appropriated for the joint committee upon vouchers ap-
17      proved by the chairman.

22 tion. The joint committee shall select a chairman and a vice 23 chairman from among its members.

24 SEC. 4. The joint committee, or any duly authorized 25 subcommittee thereof, is authorized to hold such hearings, to

1 sit and act at such places and times, to require, by subpena
2 or otherwise, the attendance of such witnesses and the pro-
3 duction of such books, papers, and documents, or administer
4 such oaths, to take such testimony, to procure such printing
5 and binding, and to make such expenditures as it deems 6 advisable. The cost of stenographic services to report such 7 hearings shall not be in excess of 25 cents per hundred 8 words.

9 SEC. 5. The joint committee is empowered to appoint
10 such experts, consultants, technicians, and clerical and 11 stenographic assistants as it deems necessary and advisable.
12 The committee is authorized to utilize the services, informa-
13 tion, facilities, and personnel of the departments and estab-
14 lishments of the Government.

15 SEC. 6. The expenses of the joint committee, which shall 16 not exceed $ per year, shall be paid one-half 17 from the contingent fund of the Senate and one-half from the 18 contingent fund of the House of Representatives upon 19 vouchers signed by the chairman. Disbursements to pay
20 such expenses shall be made by the Secretary of the Senate
21 out of the contingent fund of the Senate, such contingent
22 fund to be reimbursed from the contingent fund of the House
23 of Representatives in the amount of one-half of the disburse-24 ment so made.

2   concurring), That there is hereby established a Joint Com-
3   mittee on Central Intelligence to be composed of seven
4   Members of the Senate to be appointed by the President of 5   the Senate, and seven Members of the House of Representa-
6   tives to be appointed by the Speaker of the House of Repre-
7   sentatives. In each instance not more than four Members
8   shall be members of the same political party.

9       SEC. 2. The joint committee shall make continuing 10   studies of the intelligence activities and problems relating 11   to the gathering of intelligence affecting the national security
12   and of its coordination and utilization by the various depart-

1 ments, agencies, and instrumentalities of the Government.
2 The Central Intelligence Agency and other services engaged
3 in foreign intelligence activities shall keep the joint com-
4 mittee fully and currently informed with respect to their 5 activities. All bills, resolutions, and other matters in the 6 Senate or the House of Representatives relating primarily 7 to the Central Intelligence Agency and to other services
8 engaged in foreign intelligence activities shall be referred to 9 the joint committee. The members of the joint committee
10 who are Members of the Senate shall from time to time re-
11 port to the Senate, and the members of the joint committee
12 who are Members of the House of Representatives shall from 13 time to time report to the House, by bill or otherwise, their 14 recommendations with respect to matters within the juris-
15 diction of their respective Houses which are (1) referred 16 to the joint committee or (2) otherwise within the juris-
17 diction of the joint committee.

18 SEC. 3. Vacancies in the membership of the joint com-
19 mittee shall not affect the power of the remaining members
20 to execute the functions of the joint committee, and shall 21 be filled in the same manner as in the case of the original
22 selection. The joint committee shall select a chairman and 23 vice chairman from among its members.

25 subcommittee thereof, is authorized to hold such hearings,

1 to sit and act at such places and times, to require, by sub-
2 pena or otherwise, the attendance of such witnesses and
3 production of such books, papers, and documents, to admin-
4 ister such oaths, to take such testimony, to procure such 5 printing and binding, and to make such expenditures as it
6 deems advisable. The cost of stenographic services to report
7 such hearings shall not be in excess of 25 cents per hundred 8 words.

9 SEC. 5. The joint committee is empowered to appoint
10 such experts, consultants, technicians, and clerical and 11 stenographic assistants as it deems necessary and advisable.
12 The committee is authorized to utilize the services, informa-
13 tion, facilities, and personnel of the departments and estab-
14 lishments of the Government on a reimbursable basis with 15 the prior consent of the heads of the departments or agencies
16 concerned.

17 SEC. 6. The expenses of the joint committee, which 18 shall not exceed $250,000 per year, shall be paid one-half
19 from the contingent fund of the Senate and one-half from 20 the contingent fund of the House of Representatives upon 21 vouchers signed by the chairman.

RESOLUTION

1       Resolved, That in order to assure that the conduct of 2 the foreign policy of the United States is not adversely
3 affected by domestic activities of the Central Intelligence 4 Agency, there is hereby created a select committee to be 5 known as the Committee To Study the Foreign and Domestic-6 Related Activities of the Central Intelligence Agency which 7 committee shall consist of seven Senators to be appointed 8 by the President of the Senate as soon as practicable after 9 the date of adoption of this resolution.

10       SEC. 2. It shall be the duty of such committee to make 11 a full and complete study and investigation of the foreign and 12 domestic-related activities of the Central Intelligence Agency.

1 with particular emphasis upon the effect of such activities
2 upon domestic, private, and public American institutions 3 and organizations and upon the effect of such activities on the 4 conduct of American foreign policy. The study and investi-
5 gation shall include but not be limited to such matters as the 6 subsidization of organizations within the United States which 7 have an influence on public opinion, the covert use or sub-8 sidization of academic institutions, student groups, founda-
9 tions, trade unions, emigre groups, or other educational, eco-10 nomic, or special groups or individuals therein in the United 11 States which might affect the foreign policies of the United 12 States, directly or indirectly, and the subsidization of publica-13 tions, radio broadcasts, and other informational media dis-
14 seminated in the United States.

15 The committee shall report its findings and recommenda-
16 tions to the Senate no later than January 1, 1968. No pro-17 posed legislation shall be referred to such committee, and 18 such committee shall not have power to report by bill or 19 otherwise have legislative jurisdiction.

20 SEC. 3. The said committee, or any duly authorized 21 subcommittee thereof, is authorized to sit and act at such 22 places and times during the sessions, recesses, and adjourned 23 periods of the Senate, to require by subpoena or otherwise the 24 attendance of such witnesses and the production of such 25 books, papers, and documents, to administer such oaths, to

1 take such testimony, to procure such printing and binding,
2 and to make such expenditures as it deems advisable.

3 SEC. 4. A majority of the members of the committee or 4 any subcommittee thereof shall constitute a quorum for the 5 transaction of business, except that a lesser number, to be 6 fixed by the committee, shall constitute a quorum for the 7 purpose of taking sworn testimony.

8 SEC. 5. The committee shall have power to employ and 9 fix the compensation of such officers, experts, and employees 10 as it deems necessary in the performance of its duty. The 11 committee is authorized to utilize the services, information, 12 facilities, and personnel of the various departments and 13 agencies of the Government to the extent that such services, 14 information, facilities, and personnel, in the opinion of the 15 heads of such departments and agencies, can be furnished 16 without undue interference with the performance of the 17 work and duties of such departments and agencies.

18 SEC. 6. The expenses of the committee, in an amount 19 not to exceed $ shall be paid from the contingent
20 fund of the Senate upon vouchers approved by the chairman.

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

FEBRUARY 16, 1967

Mr. YOUNG of Ohio introduced the following bill; which was read twice and referred to the Committee on Armed Services

A BILL

To establish a joint congressional committee to make a continuing study and investigation of the activities and operations of the Central Intelligence Agency.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,
3 That this Act may be cited as the "Joint Committee on 4 the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1967".

5 ESTABLISHMENT OF THE JOINT COMMITTEE ON THE 6 CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY

7 SEC. 2. (a) There is hereby established a Joint Com-
8 mittee on the Central Intelligence Agency (hereinafter re-9 ferred to as the "joint committee") which shall be composed

II

1 of six Members of the Senate and six Members from the 2 House of Representatives, selected as follows:

3 (1) Two members of the joint committee shall be 4 members of the Committee on Appropriations of the Senate,
5 and two members of the joint committee shall be members
6 of the Committee on Appropriations of the House of Rep-7 resentatives;

8 (2) Two members of the joint committee shall be mem-
9 bers of the Committee on Armed Services of the Senate, and 10 two members of the joint committee shall be members of the 11 Committee on Armed Services of the House of Representa-12 tives; and

13 (3) Two members of the joint committee shall be mem-
14 bers of the Committee on Foreign Relations of the Senate,
15 and two members of the joint committee shall be members 16 of the Committee on Foreign Affairs of the House of 17 Representatives.

18 (b) Members of the joint committee selected from each 19 such standing committee of the Senate shall be appointed by 20 the President of the Senate and members of the joint com-21 mittee selected from each such standing committee of the 22 House of Representatives shall be appointed by the Speaker
23 of the House of Representatives. One member appointed 24 from each such standing committee shall be a member of 25 the majority party of the House of Congress of which he is

1 a Member and one member from each such standing com-
2 mittee shall be a member of the minority party of the House
3 of Congress of which he is a Member.

4 (c) The joint committee shall select a chairman and a
5 vice chairman from among its members at the beginning of 6 each Congress. The vice chairman shall act in place of the 7 chairman in the absence of the chairman. The chairman-8 ship shall alternate between the Senate and the House of 9 Representatives with each Congress. The chairman shall be 10 chosen by the Members from the House which is entitled to 11 the chairmanship, and the vice chairman shall be chosen 12 from the House other than that of the chairman by the 13 Members from that House.

14 (d) Vacancies in the membership of the joint committee 15 shall not affect the authority of the remaining members to 16 execute the functions of the joint committee, and shall be 17 filled in the same manner in which original appointments 18 thereto are made.

19 INVESTIGATIVE DUTIES

20 SEC. 3. (a) It shall be the duty of the joint committee 21 to conduct a continuing study and investigation of any and 22 all matters relating to the intelligence activities and opera-23 tions carried out by the Central Intelligence Agency.

24 (b) The Director of the Central Intelligence Agency
25 shall keep the joint committee fully and currently informed

1 with respect to all intelligence activities and operations car-2 ried out by the Central Intelligence Agency and shall furnish 3 to the joint committee such specific information regarding the 4 activities and operations of the Central Intelligence Agency
5 as may be requested by the chairman of the joint committee.

6 LEGISLATIVE DUTIES

7 SEC. 4. (a) The members of the joint committee who 8 are Members of the Senate and the members of the joint 9 committee who are Members of the House of Representatives 10 shall from time to time report the results of the study and 11 investigation of the joint committee to their respective 12 Houses.

13 (b) No proposed legislation shall be referred to the 14 joint committee and such committee shall not have the power 15 to report by bill, or otherwise have legislative jurisdiction.

16 POWERS

17 SEC. 5. (a) In carrying out its duties under this Act, 18 the joint committee, or any duly authorized subcommittee
19 thereof, is authorized to hold such hearings or investigations, 20 to sit and act within or outside the United States at such 21 places and times, to require, by subpoena or otherwise, the 22 attendance of such witnesses and the production of such 23 books, papers, and documents, to administer such oaths, to 24 take such testimony, to procure such printing and binding, 25 and make such expenditures as it deems advisable. The

1 joint committee may make such rules respecting its organiza-
2 tion and procedures as it deems necessary.

3 (b) Subpenas may be issued over the signature of the 4 chairman of the joint committee or by any member desig-
5 nated by him or by the joint committee, and may be served 6 by such person or persons as may be designated by such 7 chairman or member. The chairman of the joint committee 8 or any member thereof may administer oaths to witnesses.
9 The provisions of sections 102-104 of the Revised Statutes
10 shall apply in case of any failure of any witness to comply 11 with a subpoena or to testify when summoned under author-12 ity of this section.

13 STAFF AND ASSISTANCE

14 SEC. 6. (a) The joint committee may appoint and fix 15 the compensation of such experts, consultants, technicians, 16 and staff employees as it deems necessary and advisable.

17 (b) The joint committee is authorized to utilize the 18 services, information, facilities, and personnel of any depart-
19 ment or agency of the United States, on a reimbursable 20 basis or otherwise, with the consent of the head of such 21 department or agency. With the consent of any standing, 22 select, or special committee of either House of the Congress, 23 or any subcommittee thereof, the joint committee may utilize 24 the facilities and the services of the staff of such committee 25 or subcommittee whenever the chairman of the joint com-

1 mittee determines that such action is necessary and appro-2 priate.

3 EXPENSES

4 SEC. 7. (a) The expenses of the joint committee shall 5 be paid from the contingent fund of the Senate from funds
6 appropriated for the joint committee, upon vouchers ap-
7 proved by the chairman. The cost of stenographic service 8 to report public hearings shall not be in excess of the 9 amounts prescribed by law for reporting the hearings of 10 standing committees of the Senate. The cost of stenographic 11 service to report executive hearings shall be fixed at an 12 equitable rate by the joint committee.

13 (b) Members of the joint committee, and its employees 14 and consultants, while traveling on official business for the 15 joint committee within or outside the United States, may 16 receive either the per diem allowance authorized to be paid 17 to Members of the Congress or its employees, or their actual 18 and necessary expenses provided an itemized statement of 19 such expenses is attached to the voucher.

20 (c) There is authorized to be appropriated for each 21 fiscal year the sum of $200,000 to pay the expenses of the 22 joint committee.

23 CLASSIFIED INFORMATION

24 SEC. 8. The joint committee may classify information 25 originating within the committee, in accordance with stand-

1 ards used generally by the executive branch of the Govern-
2 ment for classifying defense information.

3

RECORDS

4 SEC. 9. (a) The joint committee shall keep a complete 5 record of all committee actions, including a record of the 6 votes on any question on which a record vote is demanded.

7 (b) All committee records, data, charts, and files shall 8 be the property of the joint committee and shall be kept in 9 the offices of the joint committee or such other places as 10 the joint committee may direct under such security safe-11 guards as the joint committee shall determine to be required 12 in the interest of the national defense and security.

21      correlate, and disseminate departmental intelli-
22      gence: And provided further, That the Director of 23      Central Intelligence shall be responsible for protect-
24      ing intelligence sources and methods from unauthor-
25      ized disclosure;

1           “(4) to perform for the benefit of the existing
2 intelligence agencies, such additional intelligence
3 activities as the President determines can be more
5 writing;

6           “(5) to perform such special operations affect-
7 ing the national security and to expend such funds
8 thereon as the President may from time to time
9 direct in writing.”

10       (b) Section 102 is further amended by redesignating
11 subsections (e) and (f) as subsections (f) and (g), respec-
13 subsection:

14           “(c) (1) Within sixty days of the enactment of this 15 amendment, the Director of Central Intelligence, and the 16 heads of other executive departments and agencies hav-
17 ing responsibilities for special operations shall report in 18 writing to the President on each special operation in 19 which the department or agency is then engaged. Each
20 report shall include a comprehensive description of the 21 special operation, its history, its objectives, the number
22 of persons engaged in the operation, the total annual ex-
23 penditures planned for the operation, and the total ex-
24 penditures made to date. The President shall review
25 each report and shall issue a written directive stating

2       minated, and, if continued, at what level of effort and
3       expenditure it shall be continued.

5       of the Presidential directive establishing the operation
6       (or, in the case of an operation underway on the date of 7       enactment, annually from the date of the Presidential
8       directive issued in accordance with paragraph (1)
9       hereof), the head of the department or agency engaged
10      in the special operation shall report in writing to the 11      President on the current status of the operation. This 12      annual report shall include a comprehensive description
13      of the special operation, its history, its objectives, the 14      number of persons engaged in the operation, the total
15      annual expenditures planned for the operation, and the

18   TABLISHMENT OF A JOINT COMMITTEE ON INTELLI-
19   GENCE

20       SEC. 2. Section 102 is amended by inserting after 21   subsection (g) the following new subsection:

22           “(h) (1) There is hereby established a Joint Com-
23       mittee on Intelligence to be composed of seven Members
24       of the Senate to be appointed by the President of the 25       Senate, and seven Members of the House of Representa-

1 tives to be appointed by the Speaker of the House of
2 Representatives. In each instance not more than four
3 Members shall be members of the same political party.

4 “(2) The entire joint committee shall be reap-
5 pointed on January 3, 1972, and every four years there-
6 after. No Member shall serve more than four successive
7 years as a member of the joint committee, except that a
8 Member originally appointed to fill a vacancy may serve
9 the incompleated term and four years thereafter.

10 “(3) The joint committee shall make continuing
11 studies of the foreign intelligence activities and special
12 operations of the United States, and problems relating 13 thereto, including problems of the gathering of intel-
14 ligence affecting the national security and of its coordi-
15 nation and utilization by the various departments, agen-
16 cies, and instrumentalities of the Government, and the 17 advisability and problems of carrying out special opera-
18 tions. The Central Intelligence Agency and other de-
19 partments and agencies engaged in foreign intelligence
20 activities and special operations shall keep the joint 21 committee fully and currently informed with respect to 22 their activities. All bills, resolutions, and other matters
23 in the Senate or the House of Representatives relating

H.R. 7107—2

1 activities of other departments and agencies engaged
2 in foreign intelligence activities shall be referred to the
3 joint committee (including lists and schedules of records
4 lacking preservation value submitted to Congress by
5 the Administrator of General Services pursuant to sec-
6 tion 4 of the Act of July 7, 1943 (44 U.S.C. 369) ).
7 The members of the joint committee who are Members
8 of the Senate shall from time to time report to the 9 Senate, and the members of the joint committee who 10 are Members of the House of Representatives shall from 11 time to time report to the House, their recommenda-
12 tions, by bill or otherwise, with respect to matters
13 within the jurisdiction of their respective Houses which 14 are (1) referred to the joint committee or (2) other-
15 wise within the jurisdiction of the joint committee.

17 mittee shall not affect the power of the remaining mem-
18 bers to execute the functions of the joint committee, and 19 shall be filled in the same manner as in the case of the
21 chairman and vice chairman from among its members.

23 subcommittee thereof, is authorized to hold such hear-
24 ings, to sit and act at such places and times, to require,
25 by subpoena or otherwise, the attendance of such wit-

1. . . . . nesses and production of such books, papers, and docu-
2. . . . . ments, to administer such oaths, to take such testimony,
3. . . . . to procure such printing and binding, and to make such
4. . . . . expenditures as it deems advisable.

5. . . . . “(6) The joint committee is empowered to appoint
6. . . . . such experts, consultants, technicians, and clerical and
7. . . . . stenographic assistants as it deems necessary and advisa-
8. . . . . ble. The committee is authorized to utilize the services,
9. . . . . information, facilities, and personnel of the departments
10. . . . . and establishments of the Government on a reimbursable
11. . . . . basis with the prior consent of the heads of the depart-
12. . . . . ments or agencies concerned.

13. . . . . “(7) The expenses of the joint committee, which
14. . . . . shall not exceed $250,000 per year, shall be paid from
15. . . . . the contingent fund of the House of Representatives
16. . . . . upon vouchers signed by the chairman.”

17. . . . . DEFINITIONS

18. . . . . SEC. 3. Section 102 is further amended by inserting
19. . . . . after the new subsection (h) the following new subsection:

20. . . . . “(i) As used in this section:

21. . . . . “(1) ‘Intelligence’ means knowledge which is
22. . . . . the product resulting from the collection, evaluation,
23. . . . . analysis, integration, and interpretation of all avail-
24. . . . . able information which concerns one or more aspects
25. . . . . of foreign nations of areas of operations and which

1 is immediately or potentially significant to policy-
2 making or planning.

3 “(2) ‘Intelligence activities’ means those activ-
4 ities undertaken for the sole purpose of producing in-
5 telligence, and does not mean covert operations
6 which, in whole or in part, are undertaken to carry
7 out the foreign policy of the United States.

8 “(3) ‘Special operations’ means those covert
9 operations undertaken by the Central Intelligence
10 Agency or other departments or agencies which, in 11 whole or in part, are undertaken to carry out the

13 PRESERVATION OF INTELLIGENCE RECORDS

14 SEC. 4. (a) Section 5 of the Act of July 7, 1943 (44
16 at the end thereof as follows:

17 “Except that all lists or schedules of records of the 18 Central Intelligence Agency, or of the activities of any 19 other departments or agencies engaged in foreign intel-
20 ligence activities and special operations, shall be referred 21 to the Joint Committee on Intelligence, and the joint 22 committee shall examine such lists or schedules and sub-
23 mit to the Senate and House of Representatives, respec-
25 mendations.”

1       (b) Section 6 of the Act of July 7, 1943 (44 U.S.C.
2 371) is amended by inserting, after the words "joint com-
3 mittee" and before the word "reports", the phrase, "to which 4 the lists or schedules were referred".

5       (c) Section 7 of the Act of July 7, 1943 (44 U.S.C.
6 372) is amended by inserting, after the words "joint com-
7 mittee" and before the word "fails", the phrase, "to which 8 the lists or schedules were referred".

To establish a Joint Committee on Foreign Information and Intelligence.

1        Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives
2        of the United States of America in Congress assembled,
3        That (a) there is hereby established a joint congressional 4        committee to be known as the Joint Committee on Foreign
5        Information and Intelligence (referred to in this joint res-
6        olution as the "joint committee"), to be composed of seven 7        Members of the Senate appointed by the President of the 8        Senate, and seven Members of the House of Representatives
9        appointed by the Speaker of the House of Representatives.
10       In each instance not more than four members shall be ap-
11       pointed from the same political party.

1 (b) Vacancies in the membership of the joint com-
2 mittee shall not affect the power of the remaining members
3 to execute the functions of the joint committee, and shall be
4 filled in the same manner as in the case of the original
5 selection.

6 (c) The joint committee shall select a chairman and 7 a vice chairman from among its members at the beginning of 8 each Congress. The vice chairman shall act in the place
9 and stead of the chairman in the absence of the chairman.
10 The chairmanship shall alternate between the Senate and
11 the House of Representatives with each Congress, and the 12 chairman shall be selected by the members of the joint
13 committee from the House entitled to the chairmanship.
14 The vice chairman shall be selected in the same manner as 15 the chairman, except that the vice chairman shall be selected
16 by the members of the joint committee from the House not 17 entitled to the chairmanship.

18 (d) The joint committee may appoint and fix the com-
19 pensation of such experts, consultants, technicians, and cleri-
21 advisable.

22 (e) The joint committee is authorized to utilize the
23 services, information, facilities, and personnel of the execu-
24 tive departments and establishments of the United States.

25 (f) The joint committee is authorized to classify infor-

1 mation originating within the joint committee in accordance
2 with standards used generally by the executive branch of the
3 Federal Government for classifying restricted data or defense
4 information.

5 (g) The joint committee shall keep a complete record
6 of all committee actions, including a record of the votes on
7 any question on which a record vote is demanded. All
8 committee records, data, charts, and files shall be the prop-
9 erty of the joint committee and shall be kept in the offices of 10 the joint committee, or such other places as the joint com-
11 mittee may direct, under such security safeguards as the joint 12 committee shall determine to be in the interest of national 13 security.

14 (h) The joint committee may make such rules respect-
15 ing its organization and procedures as it deems advisable,
16 but no measure or recommendation shall be reported from 17 the joint committee unless a majority of the members thereof
18 assent.

19 SEC. 2. (a) The joint committee shall make continuing
20 studies of—

21 (1) the activities of each information and intelli-
22 gence agency of the United States,

23 (2) the problems relating to the foreign information
24 and intelligence programs, and

25 (3) the problems relating to the gathering of infor-

1       mation and intelligence affecting the national security,
2       and its coordination and utilization by the various depart-
3       ments, agencies, and instrumentalities of the United 4       States.

5       (b) Each information and intelligence agency of the 6       United States shall give to the joint committee such in-
7       formation regarding its activities as the committee may 8       require.

9       (c) As used in this joint resolution, the term "in-
10      formation and intelligence agency of the United States"
11      means the United States Information Agency, the Central
12      Intelligence Agency, and any unit within any of the execu-
13      tive departments or agencies of the United States conduct-
14      ing foreign information or intelligence activities (including 15      any unit within the Departments of State, Defense, Army,
16      Navy, and Air Force, but not including the domestic opera-
17      tion of the Federal Bureau of Investigation).

18      SEC. 3. All bills, resolutions, and other matters in the
19      Senate and House of Representatives relating primarily to
20      any information and intelligence agency of the United States
21      or its activities shall be referred to the joint committee. The 22      members of the joint committee who are Members of the 23      Senate shall, from time to time, report to the Senate, and 24      the members of the joint committee who are Members of the 25      House of Representatives shall, from time to time, report to

1 the House, by bill or otherwise, their recommendations with 2 respect to matters within the jurisdiction of their respective 3 Houses which are—

- 4 (1) referred to the joint committee, or
5 (2) otherwise within the jurisdiction of the joint
6 committee.

7 (b) In carrying out its duties under this joint resolu-
8 tion, the joint committee, or any duly authorized subcom-
9 mittee thereof, is authorized to hold such hearings, to sit
10 and act at such times and places, to require, by subpoena
11 or otherwise, the attendance of such witnesses and the pro-
12 duction of such books, papers, and documents, to administer
13 such oaths, to take such testimony, to procure such print-
14 ing and binding, and to make such expenditures as it deems
15 advisable. Subpenas may be issued over the signature of 16 the chairman of the joint committee, or by any member
17 designated by him, or by the joint committee, and may be 18 served by any person designated by such chairman or 19 member.

20 SEC. 4. The expenses of the joint committee shall be 21 paid from the contingent fund of the Senate from funds ap-
22 propriated for the joint committee upon vouchers approved
23 by the chairman. The cost of stenographic services in re-
24 porting such hearings as the joint committee may hold shall 25 be paid in accordance with the established rules of the Sen-

1   atc. Members of the joint committee, and its employees and 2   consultants, while traveling on official business for the joint 3   committee, may receive either the per diem allowance au-
4   thorized to be paid to Members of Congress or its employees,
5   or their actual and necessary expenses if an itemized state-
6   ment of such expenses is attached to the voucher.

To establish a Joint Committee on Foreign Information and Intelligence.

1       Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives
2       of the United States of America in Congress assembled,
3       That (a) there is hereby established a joint congressional 4       committee to be known as the Joint Committee on Foreign 5       Information and Intelligence (referred to in this joint resolu-6       tion as the "joint committee"), to be composed of nine
8       Senate from among the membership of the Senate Com-9       mittees on Appropriations, Armed Services, and Foreign 10      Relations, and nine Members of the House of Representa-11      tives appointed by the Speaker of the House of Representa-

1 tives from among the membership of the House Committees
2 on Appropriations, Armed Services, and Foreign Affairs.
3 In each instance not more than five members shall be 4 appointed from the same political party.

5 (b) Vacancies in the membership of the joint com-
6 mittee shall not affect the power of the remaining members
7 to execute the functions of the joint committee, and shall be
8 filled in the same manner as in the case of the original
9 selection.

10 (c) The joint committee shall select a chairman and 11 a vice chairman from among its members at the beginning of 12 each Congress. The vice chairman shall act in the place
13 and stead of the chairman in the absence of the chairman.
14 The chairmanship shall alternate between the Senate and
15 the House of Representatives with each Congress, and the 16 chairman shall be selected by the members of the joint
17 committee from the House entitled to the chairmanship.
18 The vice chairman shall be selected in the same manner as 19 the chairman, except that the vice chairman shall be selected
20 by the members of the joint committee from the House not 21 entitled to the chairmanship.

22 (d) The joint committee may appoint and fix the com-
23 pensation of such experts, consultants, technicians, and cleri-
25 advisable.

1 (e) The joint committee is authorized to utilize the
2 services, information, facilities, and personnel of the execu-
3 tive departments and establishments of the United States.

4 (f) The joint committee is authorized to classify infor-
5 mation originating within the joint committee in accordance 6 with standards used generally by the executive branch of the 7 Federal Government for classifying restricted data or defense
8 information.

9 (g) The joint committee shall keep a complete record
10 of all committee actions, including a record of the votes on 11 any question on which a record vote is demanded. All
12 committee records, data, charts, and files shall be the prop-
13 erty of the joint committee and shall be kept in the offices of 14 the joint committee, or such other places as the joint com-
15 mittee may direct, under such security safeguards as the joint
17 security.

18 (h) The joint committee may make such rules respect-
19 ing its organization and procedures as it deems advisable,
20 but no measure or recommendation shall be reported from
22 assent.

23 SEC. 2. (a) The joint committee shall make continuing
24 studies of—

1           (1) the activities of each information and intelli-
2           gence agency of the United States,

3           (2) the problems relating to the foreign informa-
4           tion and intelligence programs,

5           (3) the problems relating to the gathering of infor-
6           mation and intelligence affecting the national security,
7           and its coordination and utilization by the various depart-
8           ments, agencies, and instrumentalities of the United 9           States; and

10          (4) the extent to which each information and intel-11          ligence agency of the United States is providing financial 12          and/or technical support for nongovernmental institu-13          tions, organizations, and individuals for the conduct of 14          activities within the United States and abroad, and the 15          propriety of such support.

17          United States shall give to the joint committee such infor-18          mation regarding its activities as the committee may require.

19          (c) As used in this joint resolution, the term "infor-20          mation and intelligence agency of the United States" means 21          the United States Information Agency, the Central Intel-22          ligence Agency, and any unit within any of the executive 23          departments or agencies of the United States conducting 24          foreign information or intelligence activities (including any 25          unit within the Departments of State, Defense, Army, Navy,

1 and Air Force, but not including the domestic operation of 2 the Federal Bureau of Investigation).

3 SEC. 3. All bills, resolutions, and other matters in the 4 Senate and House of Representatives relating primarily 5 to any information and intelligence agency of the United 6 States or its activities shall be referred to the joint com-7 mittee. The members of the joint committee who are Mem-8 bers of the Senate shall, from time to time, report to the 9 Senate, and the members of the joint committee who are 10 Members of the House of Representatives shall, from time 11 to time, report to the House, by bill or otherwise, their 12 recommendations with respect to matters within the juris-13 diction of their respective Houses which are—

14 (1) referred to the joint committee, or

15 (2) otherwise within the jurisdiction of the joint
16 committee.

17 (b) In carrying out its duties under this joint resolu-
18 tion, the joint committee, or any duly authorized subcom-
19 mittee thereof, is authorized to hold such hearings, to sit
20 and act at such times and places, to require, by subpoena
21 or otherwise, the attendance of such witnesses and the pro-
22 duction of such books, papers, and documents, to administer
23 such oaths, to take such testimony, to procure such print-
24 ing and binding, and to make such expenditures as it deems

1   advisable. Subpenas may be issued over the signature of
2   the chairman of the joint committee, or by any member
3   designated by him, or by the joint committee, and may be
4   served by any person designated by such chairman or
5   member.

6       SEC. 4. The expenses of the joint committee shall be
7   paid from the contingent fund of the Senate from funds ap-
8   propriated for the joint committee upon vouchers approved
9   by the chairman. The cost of stenographic services in re-
10   porting such hearings as the joint committee may hold shall
11   be paid in accordance with the established rules of the Sen-
12   ate. Members of the joint committee, and its employees and 13   consultants, while traveling on official business for the joint 14   committee, may receive either the per diem allowance au-
15   thorized to be paid to Members of Congress or its employees,
16   or their actual and necessary expenses if an itemized state-
17   ment of such expenses is attached to the voucher.

9 selection.

10 (c) The joint committee shall select a chairman and 11 a vice chairman from among its members at the beginning 12 of each Congress. The vice chairman shall act in the place
13 and stead of the chairman in the absence of the chairman.
14 The chairmanship shall alternate between the Senate and
15 the House of Representatives with each Congress, and the 16 chairman shall be selected by the members of the joint
17 committee from the House entitled to the chairmanship.
18 The vice chairman shall be selected in the same manner as 19 the chairman, except that the vice chairman shall be selected
20 by the members of the joint committee from the House not 21 entitled to the chairmanship.

22 (d) The joint committee may appoint and fix the com-
23 pensation of such experts, consultants, technicians, and cler-
24 ical and stenographic assistants as it deems necessary and 25 advisable.

1       (c) The joint committee is authorized to utilize the
2 services, information, facilities, and personnel of the execu-
3 tive departments and establishments of the United States.

4       (f) The joint committee is authorized to classify infor-
5 mation originating within the joint committee in accordance 6 with standards used generally by the executive branch of the 7 Federal Government for classifying restricted data or defense
8 information.

9       (g) The joint committee shall keep a complete record
10 of all committee actions, including a record of the votes on 11 any question on which a record vote is demanded. All
12 committee records, data, charts, and files shall be the prop-
13 erty of the joint committee and shall be kept in the offices of 14 the joint committee, or such other places as the joint com-
15 mittee may direct, under such security safeguards as the joint
17 security.

18       (h) The joint committee may make such rules respect-
19 ing its organization and procedures as it deems advisable,
20 but no measure or recommendation shall be reported from
22 assent.

23       SEC. 2. (a) The joint committee shall make continuing
24 studies of—

1           (1) the activities of each information and intelli-
2           gence agency of the United States,

3           (2) the problems relating to the foreign information
4           and intelligence programs,

5           (3) the problems relating to the gathering of infor-
6           mation and intelligence affecting the national security,
7           and its coordination and utilization by the various depart-
8           ments, agencies, and instrumentalities of the United 9           States, and

10          (4) the extent to which each information and in-11          telligence agency of the United States is providing finan-12          cial and/or technical support for nongovernmental in-13          stitutions, organizations, and individuals for the conduct 14          of activities within the United States and abroad, and 15          the propriety of such support.

16          (b) Each information and intelligence agency of the 17          United States shall give to the joint committee such informa-18          tion regarding its activities as the committee may require.

19          (c) As used in this joint resolution, the term "informa-20          tion and intelligence agency of the United States" means the 21          United States Information Agency, the Central Intelligence 22          Agency, and any unit within any of the executive depart-23          ments or agencies of the United States conducting foreign 24          information or intelligence activities (including any unit 25          within the Departments of State, Defense, Army, Navy, and

1 Air Force, but not including the domestic operation of the 2 Federal Bureau of Investigation).

3 SEC. 3. All bills, resolutions, and other matters in the
4 Senate and House of Representatives relating primarily to
5 any information and intelligence agency of the United States
6 or its activities shall be referred to the joint committee. The 7 members of the joint committee who are Members of the 8 Senate shall, from time to time, report to the Senate, and 9 the members of the joint committee who are Members of 10 the House of Representatives shall, from time to time, report
11 to the House, by bill or otherwise, their recommendations 12 with respect to matters within the jurisdiction of their respec-13 tive Houses which are—

14 (1) referred to the joint committee, or
15 (2) otherwise within the jurisdiction of the joint
16 committee.

17 (b) In carrying out its duties under this joint resolu-
18 tion, the joint committee, or any duly authorized subcom-
19 mittee thereof, is authorized to hold such hearings, to sit
20 and act at such times and places, to require, by subpoena
21 or otherwise, the attendance of such witnesses and the pro-
22 duction of such books, papers, and documents, to administer
23 such oaths, to take such testimony, to procure such print-
24 ing and binding, and to make such expenditures as it deems
25 advisable. Subpenas may be issued over the signature of

1 the chairman of the joint committee, or by any member
2 designated by him, or by the joint committee, and may be
3 served by any person designated by such chairman or
4 member.

5 SEC. 4. The expenses of the joint committee shall be
6 paid from the contingent fund of the Senate from funds ap-
7 propriated for the joint committee upon vouchers approved
8 by the chairman. The cost of stenographic services in re-
9 porting such hearings as the joint committee may hold shall
10 be paid in accordance with the established rules of the Sen-
11 ate. Members of the joint committee, and its employees and 12 consultants, while traveling on official business for the joint 13 committee, may receive either the per diem allowance au-
14 thorized to be paid to Members of Congress or its employees,
15 or their actual and necessary expenses if an itemized state-

To establish a Joint Committee on Foreign Information and Intelligence.

- 1     Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives
- 2     of the United States of America in Congress assembled,
- 3     That (a) there is hereby established a joint congressional
- 4     committee to be known as the Joint Committee on Foreign
- 5     Information and Intelligence (referred to in this joint res-
- 6     olution as the "joint committee"), to be composed of seven
- 7     Members of the Senate appointed by the President of the
- 8     Senate, and seven Members of the House of Representatives
- 9     appointed by the Speaker of the House of Representatives.
- 10    In each instance not more than four members shall be ap-
- 11    pointed from the same political party.

1       (b) Vacancies in the membership of the joint com-
2 mittee shall not affect the power of the remaining members
3 to execute the functions of the joint committee, and shall be
4 filled in the same manner as in the case of the original
5 selection.

6       (c) The joint committee shall select a chairman and 7 a vice chairman from among its members at the beginning of 8 each Congress. The vice chairman shall act in the place
9 and stead of the chairman in the absence of the chairman.
10 The chairmanship shall alternate between the Senate and
11 the House of Representatives with each Congress, and the 12 chairman shall be selected by the members of the joint
13 committee from the House entitled to the chairmanship.
14 The vice chairman shall be selected in the same manner as
15 the chairman, except that the vice chairman shall be selected
16 by the members of the joint committee from the House not
17 entitled to the chairmanship.

18       (d) The joint committee may appoint and fix the com-
19 pensation of such experts, consultants, technicians, and cler-
20 ical and stenographic assistants as it deems necessary and 21 advisable.

22       (e) The joint committee is authorized to utilize the
23 services, information, facilities, and personnel of the execu-
24 tive departments and establishments of the United States.

25       (f) The joint committee is authorized to classify infor-

1 mation originating within the joint committee in accordance
2 with standards used generally by the executive branch of the
3 Federal Government for classifying restricted data or defense
4 information.

5 (g) The joint committee shall keep a complete record
6 of all committee actions, including a record of the votes on
7 any question on which a record vote is demanded. All
8 committee records, data, charts, and files shall be the prop-
9 erty of the joint committee and shall be kept in the offices of 10 the joint committee, or such other places as the joint com-
11 mittee may direct, under such security safeguards as the joint 12 committee shall determine to be in the interest of national 13 security.

14 (h) The joint committee may make such rules respect-
15 ing its organization and procedures as it deems advisable,
16 but no measure or recommendation shall be reported from 17 the joint committee unless a majority of the members thereof
18 assent.

19 SEC. 2. (a) The joint committee shall make continuing
20 studies of—

21 (1) the activities of each information and intelli-
22 gence agency of the United States,

23 (2) the problems relating to the foreign information
24 and intelligence programs, and

25 (3) the problems relating to the gathering of infor-

1       mation and intelligence affecting the national security,
2       and its coordination and utilization by the various depart-
3       ments, agencies, and instrumentalities of the United 4       States.

5       (b) Each information and intelligence agency of the 6       United States shall give to the joint committee such in-
7       formation regarding its activities as the committee may 8       require.

9       (c) As used in this joint resolution, the term "in-
10      formation and intelligence agency of the United States"
11      means the United States Information Agency, the Central
12      Intelligence Agency, and any unit within any of the execu-
13      tive departments or agencies of the United States conduct-
14      ing foreign information or intelligence activities (including 15      any unit within the Departments of State, Defense, Army,
16      Navy, and Air Force, but not including the domestic opera-
17      tion of the Federal Bureau of Investigation).

18      SEC. 3. All bills, resolutions, and other matters in the
19      Senate and House of Representatives relating primarily to
20      any information and intelligence agency of the United States
21      or its activities shall be referred to the joint committee. The 22      members of the joint committee who are Members of the 23      Senate shall, from time to time, report to the Senate, and
25      House of Representatives shall, from time to time, report to

1 the House, by bill or otherwise, their recommendations with
2 respect to matters within the jurisdiction of their respective
3 Houses which are—

4 (1) referred to the joint committee, or

5 (2) otherwise within the jurisdiction of the joint
6 committee.

7 (b) In carrying out its duties under this joint resolu-
8 tion, the joint committee, or any duly authorized subcom-
9 mittee thereof, is authorized to hold such hearings, to sit
10 and act at such times and places, to require, by subpoena
11 or otherwise, the attendance of such witnesses and the pro-
12 duction of such books, papers, and documents, to administer
13 such oaths, to take such testimony, to procure such print-
14 ing and binding, and to make such expenditures as it deems
15 advisable. Subpenas may be issued over the signature of 16 the chairman of the joint committee, or by any member
17 designated by him, or by the joint committee, and may be 18 served by any person designated by such chairman or 19 member.

20 SEC. 4. The expenses of the joint committee shall be
21 paid from the contingent fund of the Senate from funds ap-
22 propriated for the joint committee upon vouchers approved
23 by the chairman. The cost of stenographic services in re-
24 porting such hearings as the joint committee may hold shall 25 be paid in accordance with the established rules of the Sen-

1 ate. Members of the joint committee, and its employees and
2 consultants, while traveling on official business for the joint
3 committee, may receive either the per diem allowance au-
4 thorized to be paid to Members of Congress or its employees,
5 or their actual and necessary expenses if an itemized state-
6 ment of such expenses is attached to the voucher.

7 to execute the functions of the joint committee, and shall be
8 filled in the same manner as in the case of the original
9 selection.

10 (c) The joint committee shall select a chairman and 11 a vice chairman from among its members at the beginning of 12 each Congress. The vice chairman shall act in the place
13 and stead of the chairman in the absence of the chairman.
14 The chairmanship shall alternate between the Senate and
15 the House of Representatives with each Congress, and the 16 chairman shall be selected by the members of the joint
17 committee from the House entitled to the chairmanship.
18 The vice chairman shall be selected in the same manner as 19 the chairman, except that the vice chairman shall be selected
20 by the members of the joint committee from the House not 21 entitled to the chairmanship.

22 (d) The joint committee may appoint and fix the com-
23 pensation of such experts, consultants, technicians, and cleri-
24 cal and stenographic assistants as it deems necessary and 25 advisable.

3

1       (e) The joint committee is authorized to utilize the
2 services, information, facilities, and personnel of the execu-
3 tive departments and establishments of the United States.

4       (f) The joint committee is authorized to classify infor-
5 mation originating within the joint committee in accordance 6 with standards used generally by the executive branch of the 7 Federal Government for classifying restricted data or defense
8 information.

9       (g) The joint committee shall keep a complete record
10 of all committee actions, including a record of the votes on 11 any question on which a record vote is demanded. All
12 committee records, data, charts, and files shall be the prop-
13 erty of the joint committee and shall be kept in the offices of 14 the joint committee, or such other places as the joint com-
15 mittee may direct, under such security safeguards as the joint 16 committee shall determine to be in the interest of national 17 security.

18       (h) The joint committee may make such rules respect-
19 ing its organization and procedures as it deems advisable,
20 but no measure or recommendation shall be reported from 21 the joint committee unless a majority of the members thereof
22 assent.

23       SEC. 2. (a) The joint committee shall make continuing
24 studies of—

1           (1) the activities of each information and intelli-
2           gence agency of the United States,

3           (2) the problems relating to the foreign informa-
4           tion and intelligence programs, and

5           (3) the problems relating to the gathering of in-
6           formation and intelligence affecting the national 7           security, and its coordination and utilization by the 8           various departments, agencies, and instrumentalities of 9           the United States.

10          (b) Each information and intelligence agency of the 11          United States shall give to the joint committee such in-12          formation regarding its activities as the committee may 13          require.

14          (c) As used in this joint resolution, the term "in-
15          formation and intelligence agency of the United States"
16          means the United States Information Agency, the Central 17          Intelligence Agency, and any unit within any of the execu-
18          tive departments or agencies of the United States conduct-
19          ing foreign information or intelligence activities (including 20          any unit within the Departments of State, Defense, Army,
21          Navy, and Air Force, but not including the domestic opera-
22          tion of the Federal Bureau of Investigation).

23          SEC. 3. All bills, resolutions, and other matters in the 24          Senate and House of Representatives relating primarily to 25          any information and intelligence agency of the United States

1 or its activities shall be referred to the joint committee. The 2 members of the joint committee who are Members of the
3 Senate shall, from time to time, report to the Senate, and 4 the members of the joint committee who are Members of the 5 House of Representatives shall, from time to time, report to 6 the House, by bill or otherwise, their recommendations with 7 respect to matters within the jurisdiction of their respective 8 Houses which are—

- 9 (1) referred to the joint committee, or
10 (2) otherwise within the jurisdiction of the joint
11 committee.

12 (b) In carrying out its duties under this joint resolu-
13 tion, the joint committee, or any duly authorized subcom-
14 mittee thereof, is authorized to hold such hearings, to sit
15 and act at such times and places, to require, by subpoena
16 or otherwise, the attendance of such witnesses and the pro-
17 duction of such books, papers, and documents, to administer
18 such oaths, to take such testimony, to procure such print-
19 ing and binding, and to make such expenditures as it deems
20 advisable. Subpenas may be issued over the signature of 21 the chairman of the joint committee, or by any member
22 designated by him, or by the joint committee, and may be 23 served by any person designated by such chairman or 24 member.

25 SEC. 4. The expenses of the joint committee shall be

6

1 paid from the contingent fund of the Senate from funds ap-
2 propriated for the joint committee upon vouchers approved
3 by the chairman. The cost of stenographic services in re-
4 porting such hearings as the joint committee may hold shall
5 be paid in accordance with the established rules of the Sen-

JOINT RESOLUTION

To establish a Joint Committee on Foreign Information and Intelligence.

- 1 Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives
- 2 of the United States of America in Congress assembled,
- 3 That (a) there is hereby established a joint congressional
- 4 committee to be known as the Joint Committee on Foreign
- 5 Information and Intelligence (referred to in this joint res-
- 6 olution as the "joint committee"), to be composed of seven
- 7 Members of the Senate appointed by the President of the

2

1 Senate, and seven Members of the House of Representatives
2 appointed by the Speaker of the House of Representatives.
3 In each instance not more than four members shall be ap-
4 pointed from the same political party.

5 (b) Vacancies in the membership of the joint com-
6 mittee shall not affect the power of the remaining members
7 to execute the functions of the joint committee, and shall be
8 filled in the same manner as in the case of the original
9 selection.

10 (c) The joint committee shall select a chairman and 11 a vice chairman from among its members at the beginning of 12 each Congress. The vice chairman shall act in the place
13 and stead of the chairman in the absence of the chairman.
14 The chairmanship shall alternate between the Senate and
15 the House of Representatives with each Congress, and the 16 chairman shall be selected by the members of the joint
17 committee from the House entitled to the chairmanship.
18 The vice chairman shall be selected in the same manner as 19 the chairman, except that the vice chairman shall be selected
20 by the members of the joint committee from the House not 21 entitled to the chairmanship.

22 (d) The joint committee may appoint and fix the com-
23 pensation of such experts, consultants, technicians, and cleri-
24 cal and stenographic assistants as it deems necessary and 25 advisable.

1       (e) The joint committee is authorized to utilize the
2 services, information, facilities, and personnel of the execu-
3 tive departments and establishments of the United States.

4       (f) The joint committee is authorized to classify infor-
5 mation originating within the joint committee in accordance 6 with standards used generally by the executive branch of the 7 Federal Government for classifying restricted data or defense
8 information.

9       (g) The joint committee shall keep a complete record
10 of all committee actions, including a record of the votes on 11 any question on which a record vote is demanded. All
12 committee records, data, charts, and files shall be the prop-
13 erty of the joint committee and shall be kept in the offices of 14 the joint committee, or such other places as the joint com-
15 mittee may direct, under such security safeguards as the joint 16 committee shall determine to be in the interest of national 17 security.

18       (h) The joint committee may make such rules respect-
19 ing its organization and procedures as it deems advisable,
20 but no measure or recommendation shall be reported from 21 the joint committee unless a majority of the members thereof
22 assent.

23       SEC. 2. (a) The joint committee shall make continuing
24 studies of—

1           (1) the activities of each information and intelli-
2           gence agency of the United States,

3           (2) the problems relating to the foreign informa-
4           tion and intelligence programs, and

5           (3) the problems relating to the gathering of in-
6           formation and intelligence affecting the national 7           security, and its coordination and utilization by the 8           various departments, agencies, and instrumentalities of 9           the United States.

10          (b) Each information and intelligence agency of the 11          United States shall give to the joint committee such in-12          formation regarding its activities as the committee may 13          require.

14          (c) As used in this joint resolution, the term "in-
15          formation and intelligence agency of the United States"
16          means the United States Information Agency, the Central 17          Intelligence Agency, and any unit within any of the execu-
18          tive departments or agencies of the United States conduct-
19          ing foreign information or intelligence activities (including 20          any unit within the Departments of State, Defense, Army,
21          Navy, and Air Force, but not including the domestic opera-
22          tion of the Federal Bureau of Investigation).

23          SEC. 3. All bills, resolutions, and other matters in the 24          Senate and House of Representatives relating primarily to 25          any information and intelligence agency of the United States

1 or its activities shall be referred to the joint committee. The 2 members of the joint committee who are Members of the
3 Senate shall, from time to time, report to the Senate, and 4 the members of the joint committee who are Members of the 5 House of Representatives shall, from time to time, report to 6 the House, by bill or otherwise, their recommendations with 7 respect to matters within the jurisdiction of their respective 8 Houses which are—

- 9       • (1) referred to the joint committee, or 10       (2) otherwise within the jurisdiction of the joint 11 committee.

12       (b) In carrying out its duties under this joint resolu-
13 tion, the joint committee, or any duly authorized subcom-
14 mittee thereof, is authorized to hold such hearings, to sit
15 and act at such times and places, to require, by subpoena
16 or otherwise, the attendance of such witnesses and the pro-
17 duction of such books, papers, and documents, to administer
18 such oaths, to take such testimony, to procure such print-
19 ing and binding, and to make such expenditures as it deems
20 advisable. Subpenas may be issued over the signature of 21 the chairman of the joint committee, or by any member
22 designated by him, or by the joint committee, and may be 23 served by any person designated by such chairman or 24 member.

25       SEC. 4. The expenses of the joint committee shall be

6

1 paid from the contingent fund of the Senate from funds ap-
2 propriated for the joint committee upon vouchers approved
3 by the chairman. The cost of stenographic services in re-
4 porting such hearings as the joint committee may hold shall
5 be paid in accordance with the established rules of the Sen-
6 ate. Members of the joint committee, and its employees and 7 consultants, while traveling on official business for the joint 8 committee, may receive either the per diem allowance au-
9 thorized to be paid to Members of Congress or its employees,
10 or their actual and necessary expenses if an itemized state-

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

1       Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate
2       concurring), That there is hereby established a Joint Com-
3       mittee on Central Intelligence to be composed of seven
4       Members of the Senate to be appointed by the President of
5       the Senate, and seven Members of the House of Representa-
6       tives to be appointed by the Speaker of the House of Repre-
7       sentatives. In each instance not more than four Members
8       shall be members of the same political party.

9       SEC. 2. The joint committee shall make continuing
10       studies of the intelligence activities and problems relating 11       to the gathering of intelligence affecting the national security

1 and of its coordination and utilization by the various depart-
2 ments, agencies, and instrumentalities of the Government.
3 The Central Intelligence Agency and other services engaged
4 in foreign intelligence activities shall keep the joint com-
5 mittee fully and currently informed with respect to their 6 activities. All bills, resolutions, and other matters in the 7 Senate or the House of Representatives relating primarily
8 to the Central Intelligence Agency and to other services
9 engaged in foreign intelligence activities shall be referred to 10 the joint committee. The members of the joint committee
11 who are Members of the Senate shall from time to time re-
12 port to the Senate, and the members of the joint committee
13 who are Members of the House of Representatives shall from 14 time to time report to the House, by bill or otherwise, their 15 recommendations with respect to matters within the juris-
16 diction of their respective Houses which are (1) referred 17 to the joint committee or (2) otherwise within the juris-
18 diction of the joint committee.

19 SEC. 3. Vacancies in the membership of the joint com-
20 mittee shall not affect the power of the remaining members
21 to execute the functions of the joint committee, and shall 22 be filled in the same manner as in the case of the original
23 selection. The joint committee shall select a chairman and 24 vice chairman from among its members.

25 SEC. 4. The joint committee, or any duly authorized

1 subcommittee thereof, is authorized to hold such hearings,
2 to sit and act at such places and times, to require, by sub-
3 pena or otherwise, the attendance of such witnesses and 4 production of such books, papers, and documents, to admin-
5 ister such oaths, to take such testimony, to procure such 6 printing and binding, and to make such expenditures as it
7 deems advisable. The cost of stenographic services to report
8 such hearings shall not be in excess of 25 cents per hundred 9 words.

10 SEC. 5. The joint committee is empowered to appoint
11 such experts, consultants, technicians, and clerical and 12 stenographic assistants as it deems necessary and advisable.
13 The committee is authorized to utilize the services, informa-
14 tion, facilities, and personnel of the departments and estab-
15 lishments of the Government on a reimbursable basis with 16 the prior consent of the heads of the departments or agencies
17 concerned.

18 SEC. 6. The expenses of the joint committee, which 19 shall not exceed $250,000 per year, shall be paid one-half
20 from the contingent fund of the Senate and one-half from 21 the contingent fund of the House of Representatives upon

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

1     Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate
2     concurring),

3                                   CREATION OF COMMISSION

4     SECTION 1. There is hereby created a Congressional 5     Commission on the Role of Congress in Foreign Policy and 6     Intelligence Activities (hereinafter referred to as the "Com-7     mission").

8                                   DUTIES OF COMMISSION

9     SEC. 2. The Commission shall make a full and complete 10    investigation and study of the role of Congress in the formu-11    lation and implementation of foreign policy and in all aspects

1 of the intelligence activities of this Nation. In making its 2 investigation and study the Commission shall give special
3 attention (1) to the extent and methods by which Congress 4 should influence foreign policy and intelligence activities and 5 (2) to an examination of the erosion of the power of Con-6 gress to declare war.

7 MEMBERSHIP AND ORGANIZATION OF COMMISSION

8 SEC. 3. (a) The Commission shall be composed of six-9 teen members. Eight members shall be appointed by the 10 President pro tempore of the Senate and eight members by 11 the Speaker of the House of Representatives. Members shall 12 be appointed from among those persons who formerly served 13 in Congress, or in positions in the executive branch of the 14 Government directly relating to foreign policy or intelligence 15 activities, and from among scholars in the field of govern-16 ment organization.

17 (b) Any vacancy in the Commission shall not affect its 18 powers but shall be filled in the same manner in which the 19 original appointment was made.

20 (c) The Commission shall elect a Chairman and a Vice 21 Chairman from among its members and shall determine the 22 number of members necessary to constitute a quorum for the 23 transaction of business.

1 for the purpose of carrying out this concurrent resolution,
2 hold such hearings and sit and act at such times and places
3 within and outside the United States, administer such oaths, 4 and require, by subpoena or otherwise, the attendance and 5 testimony of such witnesses and the production of such 6 books, records, correspondence, memorandums, papers, and 7 documents as the Commission or such subcommittee or mem-8 ber may deem advisable. Subpenas may be issued under 9 the signature of the Chairman of the Commission, of such 10 subcommittee, or any duly designated member, and may 11 be served by any person designated by such Chairman or 12 member. The provisions of sections 102 to 104, inclusive, 13 of the Revised Statutes of the United States (U.S.C., title 14 2, secs. 192-194) shall apply in the case of any failure of 15 any witness to comply with any subpoena or to testify when 16 summoned under authority of this section.

17 COOPERATION OF OTHER AGENCIES

18 SEC. 7. The Commission is authorized to secure directly 19 from any executive department, bureau, agency, board, com-
20 mission, office, independent establishment, or instrumentality
21 information, suggestions, estimates, and statistics for the pur-22 pose of studies conducted under this concurrent resolution; 23 and each such department, bureau, agency, board, commis-24 sion, office, establishment, or instrumentality is requested to

1 furnish such information, suggestions, estimates, and statistics
2 directly to the Commission, upon request made by the Chair-
3 man or Vice Chairman thereof.

4                   EXPENSES OF THE COMMISSION

5       SEC. 8. The expenses of the Commission shall be paid 6 from the contingent fund of the House of Representatives, on 7 vouchers signed by the Chairman thereof and approved by 8 the Committee on House Administration.
